Meeting of Republican Members of Congress.

The following are the particulars of a meeting of the Republican Members of Congress, held in Washington

A brief discussion rose on a motion to exclude the spectators on the floor and in the galleries, during which Representative Roscoe Conkling said he was willing to learn party tactics from the Democrats who, when they meet to discuss questions involving differences of opinion, do not throw open their doors to the public. He did not care who came to their aid. The republicans, being in the majority, will be held responsible by the country

Representative Olin of New York said that if everything done here was to be spread before the public, be it so. Let all the world know it also, all who serve both God and Mammon

Colfax of Indiana gave a sudden turn to the discussion by submitting a resolution inviting all loyal men, in this hour of our country's peril, to put down those in arms against the government, to punish treason with severity, etc. The resolution was received with applause

Stevens of Pennsylvania thought that before they acted on this resolution they should have the address which the Committee were prepared to report. This might supersede the necessity of the passage of such a resolution

Colfax then withdrew it for the present

After further proceedings, the Chairman, Dr Sherman of New York, put the question, which was carried, to respectfully request all those not members of Congress to retire

The spectators then withdrew

The address, as prepared by Bingham, was read. It was an elaborate argument, referring, among other things, to several acts of the present Congress. Colfax then offered the following resolution as a substitute

Resolved. That we hold it to be the duty of all loyal men to stand by the Union in this hour of its trial, to unite their hearts and hands in the earnest and patriotic efforts for its maintenance against those who are in arms against it to sustain with determined resolution our patriotic President and his Administration in their most energetic efforts for the prosecution of the war and the preservation of the Union against its enemies at home or abroad; to punish traitors and treason with fitting severity, and to so crush the present and wicked and causeless rebellion, that no flag of disunion shall ever again be raised over any portion of the Republic. That to this end we invite the co-operation of all men who love their country in the endeavor to rekindle throughout all the States such a patriotic fire as shall utterly consume all who strike at the Union of our fathers, and all who sympathize with their treason or palliate their guilt.

After an animated debate, the resolution was adopted, as a substitute for the address, with but few dissenting votes

The caucus then adjourned sine die.

Terrible Balloon Accident.—The people of Sparta, Morrow county, Ohio, had a large celebration on the 4th of July last. A balloon ascension having been announced and prepared by J. H. Westbrook (who had previously made one or two successful ascensions at other places in the county), the balloon was inflated and with Westbrook in the car, started from the earth between four and five o'clock p. m. It had not ascended more than three or four hundred feet, when it burst and turned inside out and fell with rapid momentum, striking the ground about thirty rods from its starting point. The unfortunate aeronaut struck the ground feet foremost, his heels going through the close wicker work of the side of the car and sinking to the depth of nearly two inches.—He was immediately taken out of the car in a totally unconscious condition. One of his legs was broken, perhaps both and the internal injuries to vital parts of his body and brain precluded all hope of recovery. No human organization could endure such a dreadful concussion. Several physicians were at hand and rendered all the aid in their power.—The balloon was absolutely rotten and filled with hot air. Westbrook was well aware of the imminent hazard but, rather than disappoint the people by not ascending, he risked his life and lost it. It was a terrible spectacle.

A Male Lady Godiva.—The Chicago Times relates a novel runaway thus: On Saturday evening last several persons indulging in lake bathing had a lesson taught them which it is presumed they will not soon forget. A number of horses came to the lake shore to quench their thirst, when they were caught by the bathers and mounted. The horses bore their treatment quietly until one of their number became frightened, and, without waiting for the rider to dismount, started on a furious gallop up the street. The horse wouldn't stop, nor could the rider dismount so that the situation was becoming perplexing to the surprised bather, who, Mazeppa like, was compelled to continue his ride. How long that ride lasted or what became of the rider has not been satisfactorily shown. It is certain, however, that just at dark on that day several citizens who were conversing with their families the evening twilight in front of their residences were astonished by the unprecedented spectacle of a horse running furiously by, ridden by a rider in full undress uniform. A few moments afterward another horse dashed by whose rider was evidently in search of the first, for he bore under his arm a bundle of clothes.

Patriots or Traitors.—The following noble sentiments were penned by the editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer:

Take your places in line. The American flag trails in the dust. There is from this hour no longer any middle or neutral ground to occupy. All party lines cease. Democrats, Whigs, Americans, Republicans and Union men all merge into one of two parties—patriots or traitors. For ourselves, we are not prepared —for either or any form of government which the imagination might suggest as possible or probable to follow in the wake of the Republic. We are for the government as handed down to us by our fathers. It was consecrated in blood, and given to us as a sacred legacy. It is ours to live by, and by the blessing of God, it shall be ours to die by.

We care not who is President, or what political party is in power. So long as they support the honor and the flag of our country, we are with them; those who are not, are against us, against our flag and against our Government. Take your places in line.

A Wonderful Yankee Notion in Paris.—The World's Paris correspondent gravely writes:

An American gentleman here, is exciting the wonder, and in some quarters, the mirth of the Parisians, by a project so vast and extraordinary that at first view it appears to be a mad one. He has purchased a large tract in a deep valley on the northern railway, where he intends solving the problem, (or at least make an attempt at it,) whether the steam caused by the central heat of the globe cannot be brought to surface and applied to practical purposes. He proposes to bore down between two and three thousand feet, where he hopes to obtain jets of boiling water and steam sufficient to serve as the motive power of manufactories. He proposes to invest about $500,000 in this singular enterprise, and in case of its success thinks he will derive an immense annual income from the rent of his motive power. The engineers to whom this work is confided are already on the ground and active operations are about being commenced.

Picayune Butler.—Speaking of the song of "Picayune Butler," the New Albany Ledger says: Before entering New Orleans, after its surrender, Gen Butler inquired if any of the bands in his corps could play "Picayune Butler," but none of them had the music, or could play it. Wm P. Malott, the leader of the band connected with the Twenty first Indiana regiment, Col. McMillan, immediately sat down and arranged the music for his band, and in a couple of hours reported that he was ready to play it. Subsequently, at the head of the procession the band entered the city, playing in magnificent style,

"Picayune Butler's coming, coming,
Picayune Butler's coming to town."

How a Zouave Feels in Battle.—One of Duryea's New York Zouaves writes thus: "I could hardly describe my feelings on the battle field while the rebels were shelling us, and I could not get a shot at them, and could see my comrades killed and wounded all around me. I felt a great deal of nervousness, but when the rebels came out to charge upon us, it all left me and I felt as cool as ever. When we commenced to charge, I felt I might almost say, a thrill of pleasurable excitement, and as though I could follow our colors to death. While the enemy were shelling us I made up my mind that when we came to close quarters, 'no quarters' would be our cry, but instead of that I gave two wounded rebels a drink out of my canteen on the field."

Cameron at Court.—Minister Cameron has had an interview with the Czar of Russia.—On that occasion the ruler of that great people expressed his admiration for the success we had made in the development of the vast extent of territory now within the jurisdiction of the Federal authority. That authority, in the opinion of the Emperor, should be maintained at all hazards. If the Great Republic of the West was broken down and ceased to wield an influence the course of empire and of civilization would be changed, and a continent destined by God for the happy home of millions of free, intelligent people, would be given to infidelity and barbarism, ruin and desolation.

Irish Resisting Enrolment in St Louis.—Gov Gamble and Gen Schofield recently issued a proclamation ordering the enrolment of the entire militia force of Missouri in six days. The enrolment was resisted and evaded to a considerable extent in St. Louis, particularly by the Irish, nearly all of whom, according to a correspondent of the Bulletin, are secessionists.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 3, 1862.

Insane Asylum.

It will be recollected that at the last session of the Legislative Assembly of this State, a Committee was appointed in accordance with the recommendation of the Governor, to inquire into and make report upon some suitable and judicious plan for the taking care of the insane and indigent poor of the State. This Committee made report in which they stated that at that time the financial condition of the State would not admit of the establishment of such an institution, as it would cost not less than $150,000 or $200,000 for the erection and endowment of a suitable edifice and make provisions for the proper care of all subjects that might require assistance; but the Committee recommended the propriety of favoring any enterprising private citizen or citizens who would engage in such a laudable undertaking, with the express understanding that whenever it was believed that the financial affairs of the State would permit, the Asylum thus erected by private enterprise was to be adopted and duly constituted the Asylum for the State. With this understanding, together with the urgent request and recommendation of many prominent citizens of this city, Doctors Hawthorne and Loryea commenced laying the foundation for such an institution, and by their commendable and energetic attention to the enterprise, they have now successfully established an excellent Asylum of sufficient capacity and abundant provisions for the proper care of every poor and unfortunate human that may be placed in charge of these gentlemen. We believe the time has come when the State should take some action in this matter, and would therefore call the attention of our Executive and Legislative authorities, who are to meet at the Capital next Monday, to this subject, expressing the hope that such action will be perfected by them as shall secure future protection, care and provision for all the insane and indigent poor of the State, who may need such attention. This is a subject that should command the attention of every humane and benevolent citizen of the State, and as we have a prospect now presented in the start of such an institution, we should unhesitatingly avail ourselves of its advantages and use the means placed at our disposal for such charitable purposes. The keeping of the insane has already cost several counties large sums, and these charges will continue to increase as the population of the country increases. We believe that almost, if not every State in the Union, except Oregon, has established or adopted plans for the establishment of a State Insane Asylum, and shall Oregon be behind in such creditable and christian duties? Our neighboring territory, Washington, has taken the matter in hand and very properly determined to use the present advantages furnished by Drs. Hawthorne and Loryea, in having their insane properly provided for at this establishment until such time as the Territory or State shall be able to build an Asylum of its own, and we see no no reason why Oregon cannot do as much and even more than Washington Territory, as our population is much larger and our revenue far greater than theirs.

We have upon a previous occasion referred to the splendid building recently erected for this purpose on the East side of the Willamette opposite this city, and of the general, and we may say almost complete accommodations provided for the proper treatment, management and probable cure of patients entrusted therein, as also of the many liberal donations and handsome presents made by various citizens of the State in aid of the enterprise and for the instruction, amusement and general benefit of the inmates. The building is located upon a beautiful and healthy site, pure air and water in abundance, affording a fine opportunity to improve the health, quiet the nerves and restore reason to all who may have been so unfortunate as to require medical assistance and kind protection. Thirty acres of rich garden lands have also been offered to the State, provided this establishment is converted into a State Assylum, the title being unquestionable, besides many other valuable donations will be made, which, taken with the present start this establishment has acquired, we are positive that no better time or more favorable advantages can be found anywhere else for the establishment of such a necessary State Institution.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting the present encumbent of the gubernatorial seat of Oregon yesterday, on the street. Gov. Whitaker is on a flying visit to our city, preparatory to going to Salem, at which place he is to be dismantled of his official position on Monday next.

EXCELLENT accommodations in way of board and lodging either by the day or week can be found at the Metropolis Hotel, which is a first class establishment and genteel hotel.

CONVENES.—The Legislative Assembly for the State of Oregon convenes next Monday at Salem.

From the Upper Columbia and the Mines.

We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. and Mossman & Co., for up-country papers. We take the following from the Walla Walla Statesman of August 31st:

LATEST FROM WARREN'S DISCOVERY.—Messrs. J. W. Seaman and J. Bradford who arrived in this city on Thursday evening from the new mines south east of Florence, have kindly furnished us the following items:

There are about 200 men at work in the mines. It having been so short a time, however, since the opening of the mines that but little can yet be said in relation to the operations of miners in general. They knew of some twenty claims open which were paying from one to five ounces per day. One claim on Summit Flat, yielded in one day $2,796. They worked sixteen men and four rockers this day, the majority of the men being engaged in stripping. This claim is the richest yet struck, and is the exception, and not the rule. The largest yield on this claim was forty ounces to one rocker in a half day. Miners were at work on three creeks, namely, Smith's Gulch, Warren's Gulch and Summit Flat Gulch. Reports of new diggings being found in the vicinity were every day current. Mr. Bradford was one of the discoverers of the mines, and gives his opinion that they are extensive. Of this, however, he is not prepared to speak positively. He thinks they may safely be set down as "ounce diggings." He disposed of his one-fourth interest in the claim above referred to for $2,400.

Mr. Seaman showed us several ounces of the dust. It resembles that of Salmon river, is perhaps a little more mixed with quartz than the Salmon dust. Mr. S. also brought down some quartz specimens obtained from the rich claim above spoken of. He had about four ounces of the dust assayed at Lewiston. It marked 630 fine; about $15 25 per ounce. The bar is of very light color, and from appearance must contain a considerable amount of silver.

FROM COLVILLE.—By the arrival of Dr. Perry, late army surgeon at Fort Colville, we learn that very rich mines have been opened on the Pen d'Oreille river, near the mouth. One man took out $1,500 in one week. The gold is very coarse. It is found along the banks, on the bars, and in the flats.

Miners were also at work on the Columbia, from a point eight miles below Fort Colville to the mouth of the Spokane, making good wages. Chinamen were offered $5 per day to work sluices, but refused, as they could do better for themselves. Pinkney city was almost deserted.

The crops in Colville valley were reported as excellent.

ANOTHER NEW GOLD FIELD.—We learn from a reliable source that rich gold deposits exist to the north of Snake river, the trade and travel to which are destined to equal that which took place last season to the Salmon river region.

FINE SPECIMENS.—Two "specimens" from the quartz lode, near Auburn, have been on exhibition at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, one of which weighs $68 and the other $80. They are almost entirely solid gold intermingled with decomposed quartz.

SALMON RIVER.—About three hundred men are now working on the bars of Salmon river, making from five to forty dollars per day. The river is now getting very low, and the opportunities for bar mining are good.

ANOTHER MINE OF WEALTH.—We were told a short time ago by Dr. Newell, that a fine marble and lime quarry was discovered near Lewiston last spring. Specimens of the marble polished, and the lime burned, proved of excellent quality.

The following items are from the Golden Age of August 29th:

INDIAN AGENCY.—Mr. Charles Hutchings has been relieved of his charge as Indian Agent for the Nez Perces reservation and appointed to a like position in the Flathead district on the western slope of the Rocky mountains. His successor at the Lapwai agency, is Mr. J. W. Anderson of Olympia, who assumed control last week. The change was ordered by Superintendent Hale.

SEARCH FOR COAL.—We learn that the Oregon Steam Navigation Company have employed parties to "prospect" the country along the Upper Columbia in search of coal. It is believed that a good article can be found within fifty miles above the mouth of Snake river. The Company are induced to this venture by the prospective difficulty of obtaining wood for their steamers. At present from the Des Chutes, they are mainly dependent upon the drift, as secured and furnished by Indians.

EMIGRANTS.—Quite a number of the overland emigrants arrived at the Dalles yesterday. They report that an emigrant train immediately in front of them whilst crossing the Bitter Root mountains was fired upon and two men killed. The emigration across the plains is very large, the great majority of the emigrants being bound for Oregon and Washington Territory.—Mountaineer.

THE NEW MINES.—We have been permitted to make the following extract from a private letter written by Doctor Hawthorne to his friend Doctor Loryea, relative to the new mines recently discovered South of Salmon river. The letter was dated at Florence City, August 24th, 1862:

"The new mines are turning out much better than was at first thought they would. Messrs. Seaman & Co.'s claim, with four rockers, take out eight and nine hundred dollars a day. It is believed by many that a large number of miners will find employment in those mines next year. I was shown several dollars worth of coarse gold taken out on a bar on Salmon about twenty miles above the mouth of Slate creek, or a little lower on Salmon than opposite this place. The gold was taken out by a lawyer here by the name of Preston, and it looks very much as if there should be more thereabouts, as it certainly was not the kind of gold to be washed far."

President Van Buren's last words were: "There is but one reliance."

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 28.—Gen. Johnson was compelled to surrender near Gallatin, on the 21st, because his force numbering 700, after fighting bravely for some time, became unmanageable and finally ran, excepting 75.—Johnson, Maj. Wentley and three other officers were taken prisoners. The rebel force was 1,800.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The official report of the expedition down the Mississippi, says the rebel transport Fairplay was captured with a cargo of arms, etc.

The railroad and telegraph at Monroe La. were destroyed, thus cutting off communication between Vicksburg, Little Rock and Providence, La. A portion of the force, with [illegible], went up the Yazoo where a battery of 12 pounders and two field pieces were taken, the former destroyed. The expedition ascended the Yazoo above Sunflower, but was compelled to return from low water.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 28.—The rebel forces threatening Gen. Morgan at Cumberland Gap are said to be 7,000 strong, under Bragg. There is a reserve of 10,000 at Chattanooga. Gen. Buell is moving up to confront Bragg. Rebels reserve will attempt to hold him in check while Bragg attacks Morgan for possession of the Gap. Monday last, Buell was 30 miles north east of Decherd and 40 miles from Chattanooga. A battle in that vicinity is shortly expected.

Dispatches from Kentucky state the rebel Generals, Morgan, Frost and Woodward have concentrated their forces and were now marching on Bowling Green.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—By mail we derive the following from the army of Virginia: On Wednesday, the 20th, the rebels drove in our pickets, near [illegible] Station, between Culpepper and the Rappahannock. A charge by the Pennsylvania cavalry routed the enemy, driving them back to [illegible]. Thursday 21st, two regiments crossed on the pontoon bridge which had been built the night previous, almost walking into Sigel's masked battery which opened on them with canister and grape, mowing them down by scores.

It is reported that no less than 500 were killed and 2,000 captured. The remainder retreated across the river in great confusion. Our loss slight.

Friday, 22d, several of our batteries opened on the enemy from this side of the river near Rappahannock Railroad Bridge. The rebels fled in great disorder to the woods. Large numbers of them were killed and wounded. During the afternoon Sigel's brigade crossed the river, drove the enemy's pickets in, who, being reinforced, came upon the 74th Pennsylvania, one of the regiments composing the brigade, and drove them back in great confusion to the river. A number jumped in and were drowned, others were shot while swimming, and a large number captured. The whole loss of the 74th is said to be 140. On Saturday morning, 23d, our artillery along the whole line of the Rappahannock, opened on the enemy. The first firing commenced near [illegible] Station, and soon extended along the whole left wing.

The enemy promptly replied, and for several hours the terrible firing continued on both sides. It was probably the heaviest artillery battle ever fought on this continent. By two o'clock the firing somewhat abated, until finally it stopped as if by mutual agreement. Shell was almost altogether fired, though occasionally round shot and pieces of iron were used with the rebels' shells. During the whole shelling, sharp shooters supported our batteries, and did terrible execution on the enemy. Friday afternoon, a company of rebel cavalry crossed the river, to the right of Rappahanock Station: the sharp-shooters dismounted all but four of them.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—The following is a private dispatch, received by Postmaster Parker, at 9 o'clock this morning:

Washington, August 27.—To the Post Master, San Francisco: Send all mails to New York via Panama, till further directions. Interruption of the Overland Route by Indians, is anticipated.

St. Louis, Aug. 28th.—Gen. Rosencrans left Corinth Thursday. The army, about 40,000 strong, proceeded south, towards Linton, where 15,000 rebels were lying, under Armstrong. Gen. Price is at Tupelo, with 25,000 men. It is probable that on being threatened, Price and Armstrong will combine and give Rosencrans battle. The withdrawal of the forces will not leave Corinth exposed, as men enough remain for all emergencies.

THE WASHINGTON STATESMAN,

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

Published at Walla Walla, W. T.,

BY N. NORTHROP AND R. R. REES

Terms Invariably in Advance.

One year	$5 00
Six Months	3 50
Three Months	1 75

THE STATESMAN has reliable correspondents in all the mining regions of Oregon, and Washington Territory—Powder River, Salmon River, Oro Fino, Colville, and the Bitter Root and Deer Lodge Valleys; and its facilities for obtaining news from these localities, both through its correspondents and the expresses running from Walla Walla to these points, are superior to those of any other paper published in Oregon or Washington Territory.

The paper is the same size as the Weekly Oregonian, and its large circulation in all the mining regions above mentioned renders it, to merchants and others, an excellent advertising medium. aug5 4m lw

The Immigration.

The coming tide has reached us. The vanguard of the great immigration has already arrived. And every day we hear of new arrivals. Many whose destination was the mining regions of the Upper Columbia will be disappointed with them, and will hasten down to this valley. We bid them a cordial welcome! We know that there is not a man in Oregon who has own interest, and the good of the State at heart, but who will bid them welcome.

A material accession to the population of the Willamette Valley is all it needs to make it the garden of this coast. There is no climate more salubrious than ours, there is no soil more productive, there is no other country where as a general thing the elements are more conformable to settled rules, and all that is needed, to aid these natural advantages in placing Oregon in the very first rank of agricultural States, is a population sufficient to develop these resources and avail themselves of these natural advantages. Our population has been so sparse and so widely diffused that it has been in a great measure rendered powerless for rendering the aid toward developing the State that would have been furnished if this valley had been more densely populated. No one will deny the fact, that if the population of Oregon had been limited to one half the extent of territory over which it is now scattered, that population would have been benefitted by it. Farms would have been made neater, thoroughfares would have been passable, school houses and churches would have been more frequent, and social life would have been very materially quickened.

Thus far we have labored under the great disadvantages of a sparse population. A better time is dawning upon us. Shall we hasten or retard it? This question is for us to answer, and may we not answer it in such a manner as to regret when too late. Hundreds of farmers, yes nearly all in the State have more land than they can properly tend. Many of them have seen that it would be to their advantage to sell a part of it at a reasonable price, and they have so offered it. But there have been no buyers. Now they are coming. Nearly all of these emigrants will want land. And if they can get it at fair prices, without involving themselves too deeply, they will go to work with strong arms and high hopes—pay in a short time for the land purchased, and all the while will furnish the aid needed to put through needed works of public improvement. But if they are obliged to pay exhorbitant prices for the land, their incentive to labor will, in a measure be lost, and discouraged they will either settle down discontented or at once make endeavors to return. We will all concede that there is such a thing as "vaunting ambition overleaping itself," and the same is true of greed. We hope our farmers will study their own interest as well as those of our immigrants. Do to them as you would wish them to do to you in like circumstances. You would deem it hard if you had emigrated to a country only to find that you could purchase land upon such terms as would practically make you the slave of the seller. So will they. We do hope that our farmers will study true wisdom and sell their lands, that they cannot well till, at a reasonable price, and the future will attest to the fact that it was the best course that could be pursued.—Farmer.

Springs from neglect of Nature's Laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is [illegible]—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self-Abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperatively command their publicity, and we commend them perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance. But, after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of the treatment, I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their character, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicines which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself at once under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life. That life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of unprincipled quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 24, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your Institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those unsightly blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were probably the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the Incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only on account of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it, soon became such that I was then led to believe as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despaired the tenure of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the cure public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
